Independent Auditor's Report

The Board of Directors Zurich Global, Ltd.

Our Opinion

In our opinion, the condensed financial statements of Zurich Global, Ltd. (the "Company") are prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of the Insurance Act 1978, amendments thereto and the Insurance Account Rules 2016 with respect to condensed general purpose financial statements (the "Legislation").

What We Have Audited

The Company's condensed financial statements comprise:

- the condensed balance sheet as at December 31, 2022;
- the condensed statement of income for the year then ended;
- the condensed statement of capital and surplus as at December 31, 2022; and
- the notes to the condensed financial statements, which include a summary of significant accounting policies.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the condensed financial statements section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Independence

We are independent of the Company in accordance with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including International Independence Standards) (IESBA Code) and the ethical requirements of the Chartered Professional Accountants of Bermuda Rules of Professional Conduct (CPA Bermuda Rules) that are relevant to our audit of the condensed financial statements in Bermuda. We have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the IESBA Code and the ethical requirements of the CPA Bermuda Rules.

Reference: Independent Auditor's Report on the condensed financial statements of Zurich Global, Ltd. as at December 31, 2022 and for the year then ended.

Emphasis of Matter – Basis of Accounting

Without modifying our opinion, we note that the condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of the Legislation. The accounting policies used and the disclosures made are not intended to, and do not, comply with all of the requirements of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Condensed Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of the condensed financial statements in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of the Legislation, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of condensed financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the condensed financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Condensed Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the condensed financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these condensed financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the condensed consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the condensed consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

General Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

- 1. Zurich Global, Ltd. (ZGL or the Company) was incorporated under the laws of Bermuda on October 26, 1992. All stock issued and outstanding is owned by Zurich Holding Company of America, Inc. (ZHCA), a business corporation incorporated in Delaware. The Company's ultimate parent is Zurich Insurance Group Ltd (ZIG or the Group), a company listed on the Swiss Stock Exchange. The Company is licensed as a Class 3A reinsurer. This is consistent with the prior year.
- 2. The business written by the Company is all primarily reinsurance of Zurich entities, with the primary ceding company being Zurich American Insurance Company (ZAIC). ZAIC is also a wholly owned subsidiary of ZHCA.

Effective January 1, 2018, ZGL entered into the Whole Account Quota Share Treaty (WAQS) in which ZGL assumes fifty percent of the net retained premium from ZAIC.

Effective July 1, 2020, ZGL entered into a quota share reinsurance agreement with ZAIC whereby ZGL assumes 100% of U.S. local policies relating to International Programs business which is produced or lead by other Zurich affiliates in other countries.

Effective July 1, 2022, ZGL entered into a quota reinsurance agreement with foreign affiliates whereby ZGL assumes 100% of foreign local policies relating to International Programs business which is produced or lead by the U.S.

Effective December 31, 2022, ZGL entered into an affiliated all lines quota share treaty with Farmers Reinsurance Company (Farmers Re), in which ZGL assumes 6.75% of net retained premium from Farmers Re. The underlying business is written by Farmers Exchanges, a California regulated insurance company that is managed, but not owned by Farmers. The ultimate parent of Farmers Re is ZIG.

In addition, the Company has reinsured property and casualty coverages written by foreign branches, affiliates, subsidiaries and co-operative partners of Zurich Insurance Company Ltd of Zurich, Switzerland (ZIC), a wholly owned subsidiary of ZIG. The Company has retrocession agreements with third parties and affiliates to cover this business. This business is now primarily in run off.

- 3. The condensed general-purpose financial statements have been prepared in conformity with the financial reporting provisions of the Insurance Act 1978, amendments thereto and the Insurance Account Rules 2016 with respect to Condensed General Purpose Financial Statements (the "Legislation"). The condensed general-purpose financial statements are based upon International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) but are in accordance with the reporting requirements of the Legislation, which varies in certain respects from IFRS. The more significant variances are as follows:
 - A statement of cash flows is not included:
 - A statement of comprehensive income is not included;
 - The presentation and classification of financial statement line items is in accordance with Schedules IX and XI of the Insurance Account Rules 2016 and differ from the expected presentation and classification under IFRS; and
 - The notes included in the condensed general-purpose financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Schedule X of the Insurance Account Rules 2016 and exclude certain information required under IFRS.
- 4. Significant Accounting Policies

Premiums

Premiums stemming from the WAQS treaty are assumed on an earned basis and will not generate unearned premium. All other premiums are earned rateably over the term of the policies. Unearned premiums are computed on the daily pro rata basis.

Commissions

Commissions and brokerage costs for business assumed from affiliates and other co-operative partners are deferred. Commissions earned on ceded business are recorded on the accrual basis in accordance with the underlying ceded policies. The portion of ceding commission related to the unexpired portion of the ceded policy is reflected as a liability on the condensed consolidated balance sheet.

Deferred Acquisition Costs (DAC)

Costs that vary with and are directly related to the acquisition of new and renewal business, including for example commissions and certain underwriting and policy issue expenses, are deferred and subsequently amortized over the period in which the related premiums are earned.

Loss and Loss Expense Provisions

Losses and loss adjustment expenses are charged against income as incurred. The liability for losses incurred is as reported by the ceding company and includes a provision for incurred but not reported losses determined by management based upon past experience and anticipated loss development. Certain loss reserves for workers' compensation and nonlife annuities are discounted. The methods of determining the provision, as well as the loss estimates, are continually reviewed and updated. Any adjustments resulting therefrom are reflected in income currently.

Reinsurance

Reinsurance is recorded net in the condensed consolidated balance sheet. Reinsurance assets include balances expected to be recovered from reinsurance companies for ceded paid and unpaid losses and loss adjustment expenses and ceded unearned premiums. Reinsurance liabilities assumed from the Company's affiliate, ZAIC, as part of the WAQS contract includes losses and loss adjustment expenses, but no unearned premium liabilities as the WAQS contract is assumed on an earned basis. Amounts recoverable from reinsurers are estimated in a manner consistent with the liability associated with the reinsured policy. Reinsurance assets are assessed for impairment on a regular basis and impairment losses, if any, are recorded in the same manner as for loans and receivables. Earned premium and losses incurred are presented net of reinsurance balances in the condensed consolidated statement of income.

Investment Income

Investment income is recognized on the accrual basis.

Fair Value Measurements

To measure fair value, the Company gives the highest priority to quoted and unadjusted prices in active markets. In the absence of quoted prices, fair values are calculated through valuation techniques, making the maximum use of relevant observable market data inputs. Whenever observable parameters are not available, the inputs used to derive the fair value are based on common market assumptions that market participants would use when pricing assets and liabilities. Depending on the observability of prices and inputs to valuation techniques, the Company classifies instruments measured at fair value within the following three levels (the fair value hierarchy):

Level 1: Includes assets and liabilities for which fair values are determined directly from unadjusted current quoted prices resulting from orderly transactions in active markets for identical assets/liabilities.

Level 2: Includes assets and liabilities for which fair values are determined using significant inputs other than quoted prices included in level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. These inputs include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, and other observable market inputs.

Level 3: Includes financial assets for which the fair value is determined using valuation techniques with at least one significant input not being based on observable market data. In circumstances when there is little, if any, market activity for a certain instrument, the Company is required to develop internal valuation inputs based on the best information available about the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability.

Within level 3, the Company has classified:

Unlisted stocks, private equity funds and hedge funds that are not actively traded. The valuations of such instruments are obtained from quarterly net asset value information from the fund manager and annual audited financial statements provided by the issuing company. The prices are generally derived for each underlying company in line with the International Private Equity and Venture Capital Valuation (IPEV) guidelines, using discounted cash flows (income approach) or multiple methods (market approach). The Company has only limited insight into the specific inputs used by the fund managers; hence, a narrative sensitivity analysis is not applicable.

Non-agency MBS, ABS and collateralized loan obligations (CLO) rated below 'AAA' and private debt holdings including certain private placements that are valued by independent pricing providers or external asset managers using primarily the discounted cash flow method with significant unobservable input parameters such as asset prepayment rate, default rates and credit spreads. A significant market yield increase of the benchmark securities in isolation could result in a decreased fair value, while a significant market yield decrease could result in an increased fair value. However, a reasonable variation in the option-adjusted spread taken from a set of benchmark securities with similar characteristics has only an immaterial impact on fair value.

Investments

Quoted and unquoted investments are carried at fair value, with the unrealized gains and losses on available for sale securities reported in a separate component of surplus, and the unrealized gains and losses on securities classified as trading reported as realized gains/(losses) in income. Other private equity unquoted investments are carried at fair value unless significant influence exists then they are carried at the underlying equity in net assets of the investee. Investments are assessed quarterly for whether there is objective evidence that loss events have occurred that negatively affect the estimated future cash flows of the investment. A financial asset is considered impaired if there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more occurred loss events that have an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset.

The evaluation of whether an available-for-sale debt security is impaired requires analysis of the credit standing of a particular issuer and involves management judgment. When assessing impairment of available-for-sale debt securities, the Group places emphasis on issuer specific factors, such as significant financial difficulty, default or delinquency on interest or principal payments. A credit rating downgrade, worsened liquidity or decline in fair value below the weighted average cost is not by itself considered a loss event, but rather incorporated in the impairment analysis along with other available information.

Unquoted investments include hedge funds that are not actively traded. The value of these instruments is obtained from net asset value information and audited financial statements provided by the issuing company. Quantitative unobservable inputs are not developed by the Company when measuring fair value of these assets. In addition, included in unquoted bonds are financial assets for which the fair value is determined using valuation techniques with at least one significant input not being based on observable market data. In circumstances when there is little, if any, market activity for a certain instrument, the Company is required to develop internal valuation inputs based on the best information available about the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability.

Cash and Time Deposits

Cash and time deposits are carried on the condensed consolidated balance sheet at cost. The cash and time deposits are comprised of demand deposit accounts and other short term highly liquid investments. Carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the immediate or short-term maturity of these financial instruments. Adjustments for foreign exchange valuation on cash equivalents held are reflected as other income in the condensed consolidated statement of income.

Funds Held by Ceding Reinsurers

Funds held on behalf of reinsurance contract holders includes amounts held by the Company for the benefit of assuming companies pursuant to the terms of the reinsurance contracts. Interest credited on funds held balances are based on contract terms.

Income Taxes

The Company filed a 953(d) election with the Internal Revenue Service and files an income tax return pursuant to regulations applicable to foreign insurance companies taxed under the Internal Revenue Code of the United States. The provision for current income taxes in the accompanying financial statements is based upon income currently taxable as provided under the tax sharing agreement with ZHCA.

Deferred income taxes are established for the future tax effects of temporary differences between tax and financial reporting bases of assets and liabilities using currently enacted tax rates. The effect on deferred income taxes of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period of enactment. Deferred income tax assets are valued based upon the expectation of future realization on a "more likely than not" basis. As of December 31, 2022, there is no valuation allowance established for the deferred income tax assets as income is projected for the next three years.

The Company has received an undertaking from the Bermuda Government exempting it from all local income, profits and capital gains taxes until March 31, 2035. At the present time, no such taxes are levied in Bermuda.

Foreign Currency

Assumed reinsurance transactions in foreign currencies are converted into U.S. Dollars at the time of recording using an exchange rate which is adjusted monthly. Since settlement of balances due to or from the Company occur at subsequent dates and are made in foreign currencies, gains and losses result from the fluctuations in exchange rates. Assets and liabilities related to transactions in foreign currencies are converted applying the rate of exchange as of the balance sheet date and may also result in gains and losses. ZHCA has agreed to assume all foreign currency exposure risks associated with foreign denominated insurance transactions.

- 5. The basis of recognition of premium, investment and commission income. See General Note 4.
- 6. The method used to translate amounts denominated in currencies other than the currency of the financial statements. See General Note 4.
- 7. Any foreign exchange control restrictions affecting assets of the insurer, with particular reference to money balances which cannot be transferred to the insurer due to reasons unrelated to the insurance business conducted by the insurer. Not applicable.
- 8. The nature and amount of any material contingencies or commitments (for example, a commitment involving an obligation requiring abnormal expenditure, pending lawsuit, or the conclusion of a long lease). Not applicable.
- 9. Any default made by the insurer in relation to the principal, interest, sinking fund or redemption provisions of any securities issue made, or any credit agreement entered into, by it. Not applicable.
- 10. The gross amount of arrears of dividends on preferred cumulative shares, and the date to which those dividends were last paid. Not applicable.
- 11. The amount of any loan made during the relevant year by the insurer, to any director or officer of the insurer, not being a loan made in the ordinary course of business. Not applicable.
- 12. The amount of any obligation in respect of retirement benefits relating to employees of the insurer arising from service prior to the end of the relevant year remaining to be charged against operations, and the basis on which the insurer proposes to charge that amount. Not applicable.

13. The following table sets forth the fair value of the Company's quoted and unquoted investments as of December 31, 2022 by level within the fair value hierarchy (see General Note 4 for level definitions):

Related party transactions primarily include intercompany reinsurance and instances where ZAIC settles cash with third parties on behalf of ZGL. The amount due to affiliates is $43,174,906 and $9,603,814 as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively. Amounts due are billed and settled as mutually agreed by the parties except as noted below. The balances are unsecured and bear no interest.

Under the agreement referred to in General Note 4, a net foreign exchange loss of $0 and $2,889,986 relating to insurance transactions was transferred to ZHCA in 2022 and 2021, respectively. The net amount due is settled with ZHCA annually and is included in the net amounts due to affiliates balance above as of December 31, 2021. This agreement was terminated effective January 1, 2022.

The Company received a $688,000,000 capital contribution from ZHCA on December 27, 2022. See also footnote 1 (b) in the notes to the condensed consolidated statement of capital and surplus.

- 16. The Company considers events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date, but before the financial statements are issued to provide additional evidence relative to certain estimates or to identify matters that require additional disclosures, and have evaluated subsequent events through April 26, 2023, the date the financial statements were issued.
- 17. There is no other information which in the opinion of the Company's Board of Directors is required to be disclosed if the financial statements are not to be misleading.

Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Statement of Capital and Surplus
